

"Removing the Veils" Libra/Pisces Full Moon

*Ritual written* and led by Janine Donnellan
(October 2005)*

This Full Moon Ritual we will focus on removing the veils we all hide behind - the masks we wear to hide our true self. The mask that we wear to prevent us from living up to our potential as human and spiritual beings.

We will begin our journey by constructing our masks from white cardboard, while decorating the masks we will contemplate on the various veils that we hide behind. Our journey will then take us into the circle where we will connect by meditation to our guidance and will gain insights as to what veils we need to remove. Once we have that information we will write on our veils that we want to remove on our masks and we will anoint the masks with sage to help remove the negativity and then we will burn our masks in the cauldron.
